

Lyrics and Music: Bill Roper
Copyright 2007

Crystal Dance

Dsus2 A7sus4
In winter-white forest they're dancing again.
Cadd9 Em7 Dsus2
They float and they leap in the arms of the wind
A7sus4
And in her cold breath see them starting to spin.
Cadd9 Em7 Dsus2
In bitter-cold winter watch magic begin.
Cadd9 Em7 Dsus2
The icicles ring with a crystalline tone
Cadd9 Em7 A7sus4
And a music that you've never known.
Dsus2 Amadd4 Em7/D Gm6 Dadd9sus4
Deep in the forest, the ice fairies dance all alone.
Dsus2
All alone.

The sunlight in winter is bitter and cold
And the snow on the ground has the chance to grow old
And give birth to fairies who dance in the air.
Look sharp in the forest, you'll see they are there.
They dance and they twirl round the trunks of the trees.
They stay deep in hiding so nobody sees
That fairies still dance in a world that mankind calls its own.
All alone.

Em7 A7sus4
They dance through the winter on ice-crystal wings,
Em7 A7sus4
Their magic preserving the promise of spring.

Walk soft through the forest some cold winter day
And be very still - you'll catch fairies at play.
They dance to the music of crystalline sound
As the sunlight reflects off the snow-covered ground.
They'll dance through the winter until the spring thaw,
But though they are gone, you'll still know what you saw.
That magic survives, it's alive, and it thrives on its own.
All alone. Dadd9sus4
Dsus2 Dadd9sus4
All alone.
Dsus2 Dadd9sus4 Dsus2
All alone.