

Long Night of the Moon

(Chorus)

Gm7 Fm7 Am7
Long night of the moon
Em7 F
And I'm feeling the hunger.
Gm7 Fm7 Am7
I'm lost in the tune
Em7 F
And I'm ready to go.
Gm7 Fm7 Am7
Can't happen too soon
Em7 F
'Cause I'm not getting much younger.
G F
I'm just waiting for thunder
Am
In the night of the moon.

Am G F E7
I hear the rumble, I hear the roar.
Am Em7 F E7
I feel the pressure, I feel her soar.
F Am G F
I sing the music of the thundering jet,
Dm7 Am G E7
Then I awaken and I can't forget.

I see the stations move against the stars.
I see the flare of a rocket ship to Mars.
I hear the song of a race that's outward bound.
Until the morning when I waken to the sound (of the)

D A G A
I see stars shining in the night.
D Am7 Em7 A
I see people building rocket ships and everything's all right.
Em7 G A
And I hear a song that ended much too soon
Cmaj7 Am7/G Dmaj7
As I'm staring at the dark side of the moon.

Fm6 C9 G E7

Inside the crescent, I see new light,
New constellations of cities taken flight,
But the cities fade away and they take away their song
And I wonder where they've gone to and I want to go along.

(Chorus twice)

F Am
In the night of the moon.
F Am
In the light of the moon.
