

Words and Music: Bill Roper
Copyright 2015

Time After Time

(Chorus)

Am
If you can do it,
G
I can undo it.
F E7
I'm on your trail.
Am
If you can change it,
G
I'll rearrange it.
F E7
You're bound to fail
Am Em7 Am Em7
Time after time.

Am G D F
I've got a job to do, I do it well.
Am G D F
You race from time to time, out raising hell.
Am G F E7
Every ripple that you make, I need to cancel out
F E7
To keep the future safe when all you vandals are about.
Am Em7 Am Em7
Time after time.

Some of you are crazy, and some of you are blind.
And if you want your grandpa dead, I really wouldn't mind.
But each new instability leads closer to the end
And so I'll save his life from you, again, and again, and again.

(Bridge)

F Am
And some of you will tell me that you seek a greater good,
F Am
That baby Hitler ought to die the way that Hitlers should.
G F
But in that mutant future, there'll be no one left to mourn
G E7
A half a trillion people who will never have been born.
Am Em7 Am Em7
Time after time.

No changes are permitted anywhere along the line.
From Big Bang to Eternity, humanity is fine.
As time maintained immutable is time that mankind rules,
And so I keep the time stream safe from madmen, cranks, and fools.
Time after time.

(Chorus twice)

Time after time. Am Em7

Time after time. Am Em7 Am Em7 Am