Real You

Amaj7 Em7 Amaj7
Do you worry what will happen when you're gone?
Amaj7 Em7 Amaj7
Who will take care of your kids is number one.
D6 Dm6 Amaj7
Or maybe it's a husband or a wife
D6 Dm6 E7sus4 E7
That you will leave alone at end of life.
G/D D6 Amaj7
You've made sure that the money will be there,
G/D D6 E7sus4 E7
Financially ok without your care.
Amaj7 E7sus4 Amaj7
But you know that in their hearts there'll be a place
D6 Dm6 E7sus4 E7
That needs to hear your voice and see your face.

(Chorus)

D6 Dm6
You could just leave them a letter,
Amaj7
But we can do it better,
D6 Dm6 E7sus4 E7
Because nothing but the best will ever do.
Amaj7 E7sus4
You can talk with them each day
Amaj7 E7sus4
Even though you've gone away
Amaj7 E7sus4 E7 Amaj7
With our AI holographic Real You.

You've seen it on the movies or TV,
The kind of wise advisor you can be.
That character we're not allowed to name
Of "faster than a speeding bullet" fame,
With a parent that you thought was long since dead
Now played by Marlon Brando's floating head.
You'll never need to worry what they'll do
When you're there to give advice as Real You.

To make Real You as real as you can be.

It's the gift to let them know you'll always care.

Real You's the next best thing to being there.

No need for anyone to be bereft.

With Real You, it's just like you never left.

If finding a new trustee aggravates,

Real You can do the job in forty states

So you can stretch your hand out from the grave.

Just think of all the money you will save.

(Chorus twice)
